

Patient Communication Policy

It is important to note that standard email and text communication is not always secure. Email and text messages can be intercepted and for this reason, our practice does not communicate personal health information through this method. Our Practice will never ask for account information, credit card numbers, or personal information via email or text message. If you think you may have received a suspicious email or text from our practice, please contact our office immediately at:

Email Appointment Confirmations

By enrolling in email appointment confirmations, you may receive non-appointment related emails throughout the course of your subscription with our office. Emails may include special offers for your specific location or alerts notifying you about important office news and events.

At this time, if you subscribe to receive email appointment confirmations, you automatically are subscribed to receive any marketing-related email. We promise that we will not spam your account with unnecessary emails, nor will we sell your information to a third party.

Text Appointment Confirmations

By enrolling in text appointment confirmations, you are authorizing our office to send text message appointment reminders to you on your provided cell phone number. You understand that you may reply with various commands to receive account information such as balances, future appointments, office location and other alerts

You also agree that all individuals associated with your account may receive alerts referencing the account guarantor and/or dependents. Text message charges from your cell phone provider may apply.

Your enrollment indicates that you represent and warrant that you are the person legally responsible for all use of the accounts, are at least 18 years of age, and agree to all terms and conditions of use for the text messaging services.

Email To Other Doctors

Upon written request from you, we may release x-rays and treatment information to other practices and/or specialists on your behalf. Please note that all email communications from this office are sent using a secure, encrypted email program and the receiving practice will be prompted to create a username and password to securely access your records. Some offices may wish to not utilize this secure portal, in which case, a printed copy of your records can be mailed to their practice.
